

Hello, the Los Alamos Little League is excited for the 2025 season. If you have registered your player(s) for the 2025 season, below are frequently asked questions and important upcoming dates. If you haven't registered yet, there is still time: <https://www.lalittleleague.org/Default.aspx?tabid=895681>

Teams – Teams have not yet been formed, but you will hear from your coach via email closer to March 5th.

Interested Volunteers – If you volunteered to coach a board member will be reaching out to you in the next couple of weeks. For all other roles a board member or coach will reach out to you after assessments. If you didn't express interest in volunteering at the time you registered your player(s), but are interested now, you can logon to your account and select a role to volunteer.

Practices & Games– Once coaches are on board practice schedules will be created, so the exact days of practices are not yet known. Game schedules will be posted on the website. Below is the frequency of practices and games based on division of play. Practices will go between WR and LA; however due to field availability games will be in LA.
